MANAGING PARTNER FORUM ANNOUNCES THE MPF 2014 LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Conference Scheduled for May 8, 2014, in Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta - January 29, 2014 - The Managing Partner Forum announces that The MPF 2014 Leadership Conference will be held on Thursday, May 8, 2014, at the Capital City Club in Atlanta, Georgia. This highly-acclaimed annual conference is designed especially for managing partners and leaders of law firms with ten or more lawyers. “We’ve confirmed a great line-up of speakers for this year’s Leadership Conference, but the real ‘stars’ of the show are the managing partners themselves,” says John Remsen, Jr., President and CEO. “We’ve learned that law firm leaders value and enjoy the opportunity to learn with and from peers in an intimate, high-level setting. So we’ve created a format that provides maximum peer-interaction among participants, including state-of-the-art audience participation technology and Managing Partner Idea Exchanges.”

MPF programs are developed based on input from past participants and the Forum Advisory Board. The MPF Advisory Board consists of thirty-three (33) managing partners, mostly from mid-size law firms. Topics focus on issues critical to leading a successful law firm, including firm leadership, strategic and succession planning, growth strategies, compensation systems, and marketing and business development.

Since 2002, The Managing Partner Forum has presented twenty-three (23) law firm leadership conferences in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Miami, and St. Louis. More than 825 firm leaders from 700 law firms have participated.
